HOLIDAY INTERRUPTION COSTS

WHAT WE COVER

We reimburse you on a pro rata temporis basis of the holiday costs already paid to the holiday letting organisation and not used (exclusive of transport), as from the day of the Event resulting in your return early, in the following cases:

- following your travel/repatriation organised by an insurer, in the conditions defined in these General Conditions,
- if a close relation (your spouse, an ascendant, a descendant of yourself or of your spouse) is hospitalised or dies, or if one of your brothers or sisters dies and, as a result, you were to have to curtail your Stay.
- If an Insured Incident (a break-in, a fire, water damage) took place at your Home and this imperatively necessitated your presence, and because of this you were to have to curtail your Stay.

WHAT AMOUNT DO WE COVER ?

Compensation is in proportion to the number of days of Stay that go unused and the number of persons who have effectively freed up the place of the Stay.

Compensation is paid subject to the maximum amounts set out in the Table of Amounts Covered per let, without however it being in excess of the ceiling per Event. To determine the compensation amount, administration, visa and insurance expenses shall be deducted, and likewise reimbursements and compensation amounts granted by the holiday let organiser or private lessor. This cover is in addition to your home insurance policy or, for lack thereof, any home multi risk policy.

THIRD PARTY LIABILITY

This cover is in addition to your home insurance policy or, for lack thereof, any home multi risk policy.

WHAT WE COVER

The pecuniary consequences you may incur as lessee of a holiday let by virtue of any bodily injury or material damage caused to others by fire, water damage or explosion occurring in the premises occupied temporarily by way of holiday let, up to the amounts indicated in the Table of the Amounts of Cover. The cover shall apply under the following circumstances:

- When you have caused damage or losses to a third party and you may be liable for having done so under civil law if a claim is made;
- And when the prejudicial act occurred between the date on which the cover initially came into effect and the date on which it was terminated or on which it expired, irrespective of the date of the other particulars pertaining to the Insured Incident.

EXCLUSIONS

In addition to the general exclusions applicable to the policy and set out in the paragraph headed "WHAT GENERAL EXCLUSIONS APPLY TO THE POLICY?" in the "Framework of the Agreement" part of the policy, the following are excluded:

- The damage or losses which you caused or brought about intentionally as a physical person or as the legal and actual director of a firm if you are a legal entity;

- empty premises,
- premises for professional use.

SETTLEMENT – ADMISSION OF LIABILITY

We are not liable for any amount payable by reason of any admission of liability or of any settlement or compromise accepted by you without our approval. Nevertheless, acceptance of the facts of the case does not amount to admission of liability, any more than the bare fact of having arranged for urgent help for the victim, where this is an act of assistance which anyone may reasonably perform.

PROCEDURE

In the event that an action is brought against you, we shall take on your defence and shall manage the trial as regards the acts, damage and losses which fall within the scope of the cover set out herein.

However, you can join our action as soon as you can prove that your own interests are at stake, interests which do not come under the scope hereof.

The fact that we take on your defence as a precautionary measure cannot be interpreted by you to constitute an acknowledgement of a guarantee and it in no way, shape or form implies that we agree to bear the cost of damage or losses which might not be covered by this policy.

In this event, we nevertheless reserve the right to proceed against you for the reimbursement for all the amounts which we have paid or deposited instead of you.

CLAIMS

In respect of your options as to claims:

- Before civil, commercial and administrative courts, we are free to bring claims as we wish within the framework of the cover provided by the policy set out herein.
- Before criminal courts, options as to claims may only be exercised with your consent.
- If a dispute only concerns civil-law interests at a later point in the proceedings, your refusal to grant your consent to the option to bring a claim which is envisaged gives rise to a right as to us to claim from you compensation equal to the loss which shall have resulted therefrom for us.

You cannot object to us bringing a claim against a third party who or which is liable if the latter is covered by another insurance policy.

INAPPLICABILITY OF FORFEITURE PROVISIONS

Even if you fail to perform your obligations following the insured incident, we may still be required to compensate the persons to whom you are liable. In this event, we nevertheless reserve the right to proceed against you for the reimbursement for all the amounts which we have paid or deposited instead of you..

TRIAL COSTS

We shall bear the cost of trial costs, receipt costs and other payment costs. However, if you are sentenced as regards a sum in excess of the sum covered, you and we shall bear said expenses in line with the proportional breakdown of our respective shares as set out the sentence.

ANTI-SURPRISE COVER FAILURE TO CORRESPOND TO DESCRIPTION

WHAT WE COVER

We guarantee you the reimbursement of all amounts kept by the owner or lessor of the holiday let, up to the limit of the let contract, following a refusal to occupy the holiday on grounds of failure to correspond to description given in the advertisement posted by the holiday let organisation or private lessor, on which basis you stipulated the let contract.

The term "failure to correspond to description" means:

- any major, permanent defect between the description of the holiday let and the reality, which makes the Stay impossible in normal operative conditions. Thus, merely by way of example, the following are not considered as major defects:
 - an orientation of the property of less than 30°
 - total floor area understated by less than 10 %
 - total garden area understated by less than 20 %
 - a distance with respect to the services offered at the let of less than 40 %.

In the same way, merely by way of example, a temporary defect (i.e. with a duration of less than 20 % of the total envisaged duration) of the premises leased or related services, is not considered as a permanent defect.

- concerning the property itself or the services or equipment forming part of the holiday letting and listed in the advertisement, where they represent a significant advantage attached to the letting and were decisive in the Insured person's choice of property, provided that:

- the absence of those services or equipment was verified and reported at the time of entry to the property on the first day of the letting

- the failure to work of those services or equipment was verified and reported at the time of entry to the property on the first day of the letting

WHAT AMOUNT DO WE COVER?

We will reimburse you, on presentation of documentary evidence, for any amounts (payment on account and/or outstanding balance) paid or payable by you to the owner, and retained by it, up to the amount of the rent originally stated for the planned length of the Stay and up to the limit set out in the Table of Amounts Covered.

Any claim arising from refusal to occupy the rented premises made other than in accordance with the provisions of this section will result in the loss of the right to reimbursement.

WHAT WE EXCLUDE

In addition to the general exclusions set out in the paragraph headed "WHAT GENERAL EXCLUSIONS APPLY TO THE POLICY?" of the "FRAMEWORK OF THE POLICY", cover for refused acceptance of a Lease is excluded, where grounded in:

- fraud by the lessee, i.e. any booking permitted by it using a false name or false capacity, or using fraudulent means with the general aim of misleading others to believe that a fanciful property exists or which belongs to others,
- indirect losses, loss of opportunity, loss of customers, contractual penalties,
- any lettings agreed between persons in a family relationship in any degree.

BY WHAT TIME MUST YOU REPORT THE INSURED EVENT?

You must immediately notify the holiday let organiser or private lessor and notify us of the finding of non-conformity at the latest within 5 days of your arrival, your refusal to accept the premises let and the reasons behind this. To do so, you must submit the claim declaration at the end of these General Conditions.

WHAT MUST YOU DO WHEN THERE IS AN INSURED INCIDENT?

You must lodge a complaint with the competent authorities. Your incident report must be sent together with:

- a receipt of the deposit of your complaint as quickly as possible and at least within 8 days of deposit;
- the original copy of the initial invoice acquired as prepared by the holiday let organisation or the private lessor;
- a copy of the advertisement describing the holiday let and any photographs of the premises let, etc.;
- the report on the premises, photographs, witnesses and any other documents that can show that it was indeed not a true reflection of the reality.

Reimbursement of the amount of the lease will only be assigned to the Insured or his assignees and not to any other natural person or legal entity.

ANTI-SURPRISE COVER FRAUDULENT TRANSACTION

WHAT WE COVER

Within the limits of the Table of Amounts Covered, we guarantee reimbursement of amounts paid for the holiday let of the premises made available to the public by an advertisement placed by the holiday let organiser or private lessor.

Our cover will only apply when, because of a dishonest or fraudulent act on the part of the lessor/owner (or suchlike), you are unable, despite your best efforts to do so, either to take possession of the rented property or to obtain reimbursement of the amounts spent which have been debited to your account, provided that:

- you have available to you a letting agreement signed by the owner or the letting agency;
- you make a complaint about that dishonest or fraudulent act to the competent authorities;
- you present proof that the amount has been debited (bank statements and certified copy of the cashed cheque supplied by the bank or copy of the standing order or direct debit, etc.);
- the amounts paid were not paid in cash;
- the bank which issued the payment instrument has not reimbursed you and is not in the course of a reimbursement process.

You undertake to inform us of all partial or total reimbursement by the holiday let organiser, private lessor or any other bank or insurance organisation, indemnifying the same damages during the instruction of your claim or subsequent to payment of the indemnity.

WHAT AMOUNT DO WE COVER?

The indemnity is reimbursed within the limits set out in the Table of Amounts Covered.

BY WHAT TIME MUST YOU REPORT THE INSURED EVENT?

To claim under this head of cover, you must notify the holiday let organiser or private lessor and us within 72 hours of the discovery of the fraud or suspected fraud. To do so, you must submit the claim declaration at the end of these General Conditions.

WHAT MUST YOU DO WHEN THERE IS AN INSURED INCIDENT?

provisions envisaged by these General Conditions and at risk of forfeiture, the Insured must take all steps necessary to suspend the effects of the infraction and limit the extent of the Claim. You must lodge a criminal complaint with the competent authorities.

Your incident report must be sent together with:

- a receipt of the deposit of your complaint as quickly as possible and at least within 8 days of deposit;
- a copy of the letting agreement signed by the owner or the letting agency;
- any document showing your payment made for the booking and the collection by the owner.

At our simple request to do so, you undertake to provide us with any supplementary documents we believe may be useful to pursuing the matter.

You undertake to inform us of all partial or total reimbursement by the holiday let organiser or private lessor and you undertake to return any additional reimbursement received after the claim declaration, to us.

If you knowingly use inexact documents as evidence or use fraudulent means or make inexact or reticent declarations, you shall forfeit all rights to indemnity.

Reimbursement of the amount of the lease will only be assigned to the Insured or his assignees and not to any other natural person or legal entity.

WHAT WE EXCLUDE

In addition to the general exclusions set out in the paragraph headed "WHAT GENERAL EXCLUSIONS APPLY TO THE POLICY?" in the "Framework of the Policy" part of the policy, the following are excluded:

- any booking, payment on account, bank transfer or settlement made after you were informed by the holiday let organisation or a private lessor, of a suspected fraud;
- any reservation in response to an advertisement which makes it clear that the recipient of any deposits or payments on account had no right and did not have the necessary authorisation to publish the advertisement;
- any factor affecting only the approval of the letting;
- deposits or payments on account not reimbursed by the owner because of failure on your part to comply with the rules agreed with the owner and contained in the tenancy agreement;
- any claim for reimbursement concerning the cost of travel, including petrol, incurred by you to reach your holiday destination;
- the cancellation of your stay by the owner before your departure, if they have reimbursed you for the amounts paid in accordance with your tenancy agreement within a period of 30 days following notice of the Cancellation.

FRAMEWORK OF THE AGREEMENT

This agreement is governed by French law.

COMMENCEMENT AND PERIOD OF VALIDITY

The duration of validity of all the cover corresponds to the Stay dates set out on the receipt issued by the holiday let organiser and shall not exceed 90 consecutive days, with the exception of the "CANCELLATION OF STAY" cover, which is effective on the date on which the policy is taken out by you and which expires on your departure date.

The cover "ANTI-SURPRISE: DOES NOT CORRESPOND TO THE DESCRIPTION", which takes effect on the date of signature of the policy, and expires on the day following the date on which possession was taken of the property.

The cover "ANTI-SURPRISE: FRAUDULENT TRANSACTIONS", which takes effect on the date of signature of the policy and expires, at the soonest, on the date on which the fraud was discovered before the beginning of the Stay and, at the latest, on the date on which possession of the property was taken.

CANCELLATION IN CASE OF DOUBLE INSURANCE

In accordance with article L. 112-10 of the French Insurance Code, an Insured who takes out an insurance policy for non-business purposes, if he or she can provide evidence of a preexisting policy as regards one of the risks covered by the new policy, can withdraw from the new policy, without incurring expenses or penalties, so long as he or she has not executed the policy in full or the Insured has not made a claim as regards any head of cover, within 14 calendar days from the conclusion of the new policy. The cancellation must be sent by post or e-mail to CHAPKA:

- mail to: info@chapka.fr
- by letter sent recorded delivery with advice of receipt addressed as follows: CHAPKA ASSURANCES - 31-35 rue de la Fédération, 75717 Paris Cedex 15 France.

The insurer must refund the amount of the premium paid by the Insured within not more than 30 days from the date on which the right to cancel was exercised, unless an insured incident giving rise to a claim under the policy has occurred within the period for cancellation.

HOW ARE LOSSES COVERED BY INSURANCE POLICIES ASSESSED?

If the amount of compensation cannot be determined by agreement, they must be assessed by way of an informal reference to expert opinion.

Each side must appoint an expert. If the appointed experts cannot agree, they call in a third expert and the three of them must decide collectively by majority vote.

Should one party fail to appoint an expert, or should the two experts be unable to agree on the appointment of a third, the appointment must be made by the President (Presiding Judge) of a French "Tribunal de Grande Instance" (High Court) of the district where the insured incident occurred. This appointment is made on request, signed by one or both parties; if one party has not signed, that party is invited to attend the expert hearing by registered letter. Each party is liable for the costs and fees of its appointed expert and, if applicable, one half of those of the third expert.

INSURANCE COVER: WHEN WILL YOU RECEIVE PAYMENT?

As regards insurance cover, the claim shall be settled within not more than 5 days from the date of agreement between the parties or of an enforceable judicial decision.

SUBROGATION

Once we have incurred costs in the course of providing our insurance cover and/or assistance services, we are entitled to take over and enforce any claims and rights of action which you may have against third parties liable for the insured event, as provided by article L 121-12 of the Insurance Code.

Our right of recovery is limited to the total cost incurred by us in performance of this agreement.

WHAT IS THE LIMITATION PERIOD?

Article L 114-1 of the Insurance Code:

All claims arising from a contract of insurance shall expire two years after the date of the event from which they arose. However, this period only runs:

- 1 - in the case of any non-disclosure, omission or false or inaccurate statement about the risk incurred, from the date on which the insurer becomes aware of such;

2 - following an insurable event, from the day when the interested parties became aware of it, it they can prove that they were unaware of it till then. When the claim of the insured party against the insurer arises out of a claim by a third party, the time limit only runs from the date on which that third party brought an action against the insured party or was indemnified by the latter.

Article L 114-2 of the Insurance Code:

The limitation period is interrupted by the ordinary grounds for interruption of limitation periods and by the appointment of experts following a claim. The interruption of the limitation period can, moreover, also take place by the sending of a letter by recorded delivery with advice of receipt, addressed by the insurer to the insured party regarding a claim for payment of the premium, and by the insured party to the insurer regarding the settlement of the indemnity.

Article L 114-3 of the Insurance Code:

As an exception to Article 2254 of the Civil Code, the parties to the insurance contract cannot, even by mutual agreement, amend the limitation period nor add to the grounds for suspension or interruption of such.

The ordinary causes of the interruption of the limitation period are defined in Articles 2240 to 2246 of the Civil Code: the debtor's admission of the claim for which he was claiming limitation (article 2240 of the Civil Code), the commencement of legal proceedings (articles 2241 to 2243 of the Civil Code) or process for the enforcement of a judgement (articles 2244 to 2246 of the Civil Code).
